

Community Partners

2019

The Jacksonville Humane Society is proud to partner with many organizations, both local and national, to create a more compassionate community.

- K9's for Warriors: JHS provides low cost medical screenings for their dogs and find homes for those who do not meet their requirements.
- Hubbard House: JHS will board, free of charge, the pets of victims of domestic abuse.
- North Florida School of Special Education: JHS provides weekly volunteer opportunities for students at NFSSE and fieldtrip.
- The ARC of Jacksonville: JHS provides weekly volunteer opportunities to residents of The ARC to learn job-training skills.
- Youth Crisis Center: Children at the Youth Crisis Center come to JHS twice a month to participate in Pawsitive Reading.
- Girl & Boy Scout Troops: JHS works with local troops and scouts to earn badges and complete Eagle Scout projects.
- The Jacksonville Public Library: JHS staff has presented to library patrons and hosted mini-adoption events.
- University of North Florida: JHS provides jobs to students in the federal work-study program at UNF and internships to students in the Communications Department.
- University of Florida: JHS provides externships for students studying veterinary science from UF Veterinary School.
- Department of Corrections: JHS hosts a community service program where adults can satisfy court mandated community service hours.
- Animal Care & Protective Services: JHS transfers pets from ACPS on a weekly basis in an effort to maintain our city's no kill status. We also frequently collaborate to host joint adoption events.
- First Coast No More Homeless Pets: JHS participates in FCNMHP's Mega Adoption events held twice a year and works in partnership to help support the feral freedom program.
- The Beaches Academy: Students participate monthly in JHS' Pawsitive Reading program.
- Berry Good Farms: JHS invites students from Berry Good Farms to make take-home treats for our VIP guests at Toast to the Animals.
- JSO: An officer from JSO's Canine Unit visited the JHS summer camp with a police service dog.
- Jacksonville Zoo & Gardens: JHS presented about companion animals during their camp, and the Zoo's supervisor of mammals has visited JHS camps to talk about the differences between wolves/coyotes and domestic dogs.
- Catty Shack: Representatives of Catty Shack have visited the JHS summer camp to share information on tigers vs. domestic cats.
- Daniel Kids: Students from Daniel Kids visit JHS to participate in Pawsitive Reading.
